

We believe that the algorithms within InfoPACK are technically superior to others on the market. This, combined with the use of expert staff enables us to extract the maximum possible information from SAR images.

We can process your data for you if you do not need a fully licenced version of InfoPACK or want to make use of our expertise in this field.